Northwest Child Development Centre Family Connection Centre - Atlin Speech Language Pathologist

This is a permanent, part-time position to start as soon as possible
The NWCDC is open to employment or contract agreements for this position.

Hours are based on availability and community need.

Salary: $43.62 - $53.06 per hour

Job Summary:

The Speech Language Pathologist is a member of an interdisciplinary team which serves children from birth to 19 years of age. The therapist's role with young children, families and caregivers is one of facilitation and prevention using his/her specialized skills and knowledge to assist the child and family in their development in the home and other community settings. The SLP also provides assessment, consultation, and program recommendations to parents of school-age children with the goal to enable students to achieve their maximum potential in areas of Speech and Language development. The position is for community-based services to Atlin. The duties of the SLP follow the guidelines of the College of Speech and Hearing Health Professionals of BC [CSHHPBC]. Services are delivered in homes or in community settings.

Our Team:

Our Speech Language Pathologist will join our organization's Pediatric Therapy Network for peer support and individual/team mentorship. The SLP will also have access to professional development opportunities, resource sharing through specialized equipment libraries and work with specialized Provincial therapeutic teams to serve the many communities of our service delivery area. Our Team is energized, enthusiastic and dedicated to ensuring children, youth and their families receive the highest quality of services from the Northwest Child Development Centre!

Qualifications:

- Master's degree or equivalent in Speech-Language Pathology.
- Current active registration with the College of Speech & Hearing Health Professionals of BC.
- Experience working directly with children, including children with developmental delays, their families, and other professionals.
- Effective communication and interpersonal skills.
- Commitment to a family-centered, community-based team approach to service delivery.
- Commitment to cultural safety and diversity in clinical practice.
- Valid driver's license and reliable vehicle is required.
- Meet standards required by criminal records review process.

NWCDC Thanks all interested applicants. Only those chosen for an interview will be contacted.
